DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-23 and 26-37 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art fails to describe either alone and/or in combination a method for forming a perforation surrounding a wellbore using a non-linear shaped charge by detonating a shaped charge by initiating a main explosive charge at two points between about 165 and about 196 degrees apart on the outside surface of the main explosive charge such that the liner is formed into a jet that penetrates the formation which makes a linear perforation and the main explosive is initiated at no other point.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
